

To whom it may concern

Non-interventional observational program “Experience of administration of the drug Ursosan® (ursodeoxycholic acid) for the prevention of atherosclerosis and liver fibrosis in real clinical practice for patients with non-alcoholic fatty liver disease” conducted by the public organization "Russian Society for the Study of the Liver".

Three medical institutions located in the Russian Federation will take part in the implementation of the program:

- Moscow (1 center, the number of included patients - 50, responsible - prof. Mayevskaya M. V.);
- Tyumen (1 center, the number of included patients - 50, responsible prof. Chesnokov E. V.);
- Chelyabinsk (1 center, the number of included patients - 50, responsible MD Pirogova I. Yu.).

Duration of observation: 24 weeks.

The scientific supervisor of the Program is Academician of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Professor V. T. Ivashkin.

The grant for the Non-interventional observational program was provided by JSC “PRO.MED.CS Marketing”

Doctors from Kazakhstan and Tandjikistan plan to take part in the program.

The program was approved at the meeting of the board of the Russian Society for the Study of the Liver September 19, 2017.

Vice president RSLs

Mayevskaya M. V.