1 The expertise of gastroenterologists and the number of gastroenterologists in this study have not been mentioned.

Thanks for your comments. I have rewritten the second paragraph of the Materials and methods and added the related information in the revised manuscript. (Page 3, Line 3-4)

2 The indications of titanium clip insertion which have significantly been used for hot snare polypectomies in contrast to cold snare polypectomies in the present study have not been mentioned

Thanks for your comments. I have added the indications of titanium clip insertion in the the second part of the result in the revised manuscript. (Page 20, Line 9-10)
