SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The author's writing is in the style of an original article, but the type of submission is a case report. The author described the surgical treatment of more than 70 patients, using extremely simple statistical analysis, which should be an observational study. If you want to submit a paper in the form of a case report, you need to modify the format of the article accordingly. The case report does not require limitation, and you need to add image data. Therefore, my opinion is major revision, and submit the manuscript after revision.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The manuscript is good. I suggest editing the Conclusions section in abstract to reflect the conclusions from the observations.
