COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors described detail procedure for avoiding nerve injuries during elbow arthroscopy. The manuscript is well written and easy to understand even for beginners. With minor revisions, I recommend this paper to be accepted. 1. Fig. 7, 8, and 9 should be cited in the text within parenthesis. 2. If possible, it is desirable that arthroscopic photos during surgery are included in the manuscript.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors present a paper on how to avoid iatrogenic injuries in elbow arthroscopy. The paper is neatly written. Text is correct and also references and figures. I think this paper is going to be read by many orthopedic surgeons related with elbow arthroscopy.
