

Affidavit for the Accuracy of English Language of the ESPS Manuscript NO: 32747

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am Dr. Leon Duen-Liang Wang, a medical scientist, who has been living in the United State since 1971. I am the owner of the Scientific Communication Services, Inc
. The scope of our services includes the translation of Chinese, Japanese, German, and English medical literature and clinical/preclinical study reports, for the IND / NDA submission s to the U.S. FDA and to the regulatory agencies of the EU countries.

My doctoral training was in the fields of medical physiology and pharmacology. My postdoctoral training included toxicology, epidemiology, and regulatory affairs.

I have carefully reviewed the ESPS Manuscript NO: 32747. I am glad to issue an affidavit for the accuracy of English language of the above said manuscript.

At this moment, I am traveling in Asia. I will be able to send you a notarized affidavit using my company's letterhead stationary after I come back to the States on June 20, 2017.
