COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a very well-written manuscript, very exhaustive too! Perhaps the authors should contribute their personal experiences. Few queries: 1. The 'ABSTRACT' section is too long, needs to be crisp. 2. I don't think there is difficulty in maintaining pneumoperitoneum in SILS like you mentioned. 3. I understand that the term 'SILS' is a trademark of Covidien, and should not be used loosely to describe single incision surgery.
