

IRB APPROVAL and INFORMED CONSENT STATEMENT

An IRB approved protocol and written informed consent is not required by the New York University School of Medical IRB.

All three patients were treated based on clinical indications.

Verbal approval was obtained by all patients to have their non-identifiable information published in this case series.

Samuel Byrd, MD