

Biostatistics

This is Fu-Yu Li, writing from the West China Hospital of Sichuan University. At first, please allow me to thank you with all my heart for receiving and reviewing my manuscripts entitled “Prognostic Factors and Long-term Outcomes of HilarCholangiocarcinoma:A Single-Institution Experience in China.”The statistical methods in our study were viewed by a professional biostatistics editor. Thank you so much for your great kindness and precious advice on my manuscript.
