COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I think the paper is fine overall. The first sentence in the last paragraph on page 10 does not make sense. It needs some reworking.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

To the authors, I read with interest your manuscript. I entirely agree with your proposed changes in attitude of politicians, governments, health authorities and medical community from LA countries towards the access of new HCV treatments. The manuscript can be accepted for publication after correction of the few grammar/spelling errors (including the title!).
