Adjuvant chemotherapy for resected colorectal cancer metastases: Literature review and meta-analysis

Giovanni Brandi, Stefania De Lorenzo, Margherita Nannini, Stefania Curti, Marta Ottone, Filippo Gustavo Dall'Olio, Maria Aurelia Barbera, Maria Abbondanza Pantaleo, Guido Biasco

Abstract

Surgical resection is the only option of cure for patients with metastatic colorectal cancer (CRC). However, the risk of recurrence within 18 mo after metastasectomy is around 75% and the liver is the most frequent site of relapse. The current international guidelines
