Retrospective Cohort Study

Promising short-term clinical results of the cementless Oxford phase III medial unicondylar knee prosthesis

van Dorp KB, Breugem SJM, Bruijn DJ, Driessen MJM

Abstract

AIM: To investigate the short-term clinical results of the Oxford phase III cementless medial unicondylar knee prosthesis (UKP) compared to the cemented medial UKP.

METHODS: We conducted a cross-sectional study in a tertiary orthopedic centre between the period of May 2010 and September 2012. We included 99 medial UKP in
