Generalizable items of quantitative and qualitative cornerstones for personnel requirement of physicians in anesthesia

Manfred Weiss, Rolf Rossaint, Thomas Iber

Abstract

Anesthesiologists perform a broad spectrum of tasks. However, in many countries, there is no legal basis for personnel staffing of physicians in anesthesia. Also, the German diagnosis-related groups (G-DRG) system for refunding does not deliver such a basis. Thus, in 2006 a new calculation base for the personnel requirement that included an
