

Animal care and use statement

The animal protocol was designed to minimize pain or discomfort to the animals.

All animals had free access to food and water, and were housed under controlled environmental conditions (22°C, 40%–60% relative humidity, 12/12 h light/dark cycle). After two weeks of feeding adaptation, animals were used for our experiments.