

Statement on the care and use of laboratory animals

The experimental procedure tried best to minimize the pain of animals. The experimental animals were housed at 23°C, 50% humidity, 12:12 h light-dark cycle for 2 weeks with access to free-feeding of commercial diet and water. Animals were anesthetized with chloral hydrate to minimize their pain.