

Animal care and use statement: 10-week-old female PCK rats were purchased from Charles River, France). The animals were housed in the central animal facility of KU Leuven and cared for by dedicated animal technicians according to the guidelines approved by the university committee for animal welfare.