

Animal care and use statement: The animal protocol was designed to minimize pain or discomfort to mice. Mice were acclimatized to laboratory conditions for two weeks prior to experimentation. Mice were euthanized by carbon dioxide inhalation for tissue collection.