

Biostatistics statement: Statistical differences were determined by t-test and Kruskal-Wallis nonparametric one-way analysis. All P-values less than 0.05 were considered to indicate a statistically significant difference.