

The statistical methods of this study were basic and as such a biomedical statistician was not consulted. Drs. Luu, Fontaine, and Almhanna had ample experience to perform and interpret the statistical methods and results of this study.