

The requirement for informed consent was waived by the committee because of the retrospective study nature.