Informed consent was obtained from the patient's family. Consent form information could not accessed because the management of the instution changed and the hospital departments were created. No genetic test can be performed without consent. The analysis result of patient in our digital archive is presented.

