

Informed consent statement: This case report was written using the clinical data of the patient in 2009. General consent was obtained in which the patient agrees with the research use of residual body parts (ex. Blood sample) and clinical records and data with anonymization.