

Informed consent statement:

As this is a retrospective study and only existing data from medical records that were collected, patients were not required to give signed informed consent to the study. However, all patients agreed to prior medical treatment provided in the healthcare setting by written consent.