

Informed Consent

The HIRA database is accessible to all researchers and holds anonymized patient information to protect the privacy of individuals. The HIRA database can be accessed by any researchers whose study protocols have been approved by an official review committee. And Informed consent of HIRA data is omitted. Therefore, Informed consent form of all participants of HIRA database are not available.