

Informed consent statement: Our institutional review board approved waiver of informed consent for the present cross-sectional study about the patient (pancreatitis) group. All of the subjects of community group provided written informed consent for the comprehensive epidemiological study.