

The Jikei University University School of Medicine
Informed consent statement for case report

Title of case report:

Liver injury after aluminum potassium sulfate and tannic acid treatment of hemorrhoids

Author: Kenichi Yoshikawa

I was satisfied with the explanation from the attending physician about the following, so I agree to cooperate with the research

- 1 About implementation of research
- 2 Name of research organization and name of research representative
- 3 Purpose and significance of research
- 4 Method and duration of study
- 5 Reason why it was selected as a research subject
- 6 Predicted risks and benefits
- 7 Freedom of withdrawal of consent
- 8 Freedom of participation
- 9 Information disclosure on research
- 10 How to obtain and view research plan
- 11 Handling of personal information
- 12 Method of storage and disposal of samples and information
- 13 On the source of research and conflicts of interest
- 14 Consultation window
- 15 About economic burden or reward
- 16 About other treatment methods
- 17 About medical provision after the research
- 18 About the handling of research results
- 19 About compensation for health damage
- 20 About the possibility that your information and materials will be used for different research
- 21 Your information except personal information will be browsed

Kenichi Yoshikawa

Print Name of physician

Kazuhiro Saitoh

Print Name of Patient or Authorized Representative

24th March, 2017

Date