

Informed verbal consent was obtained from all individual participants included in the study and recorded at the medical records.