

The ethics committee certified the situation: patients were not required to give informed consent to participate in the study because the analysis used anonymous clinical data that were obtained after each patient agreed to the treatment by written consent. So we did not provide Signed Informed Consent Form(s) or Document(s).