

Because this study is a retrospective study, no new patients will be enrolled, data of patients are anonymous, and we will not use medical records and specimens that patients have explicitly refused to use before. Therefore, the hospital ethics committee agreed to waive the informed consent form.