

Informed consent statement

The Ethics Committee waived the need for informed consent for this study since it solely utilized data from medical charts without direct patient contact. To offer further documentation, the Ethics Committee's decision.