

Informed Consent Waiver

I, Monica Peravali, corresponding author certify a waiver for informed consent was obtained from the Institutional Review Board. Given the retrospective nature of the study, we need access to patients' medical records and it was impractical or impossible to obtain authorization from each individual.