

Consent to participate

We request a waiver of consent and authorization for this review of medical records. This study and its results are unlikely to be meaningful to the subjects, so contact to request their consent could compromise their privacy unnecessarily. In addition, given the large number of records to review, it would not be practical to contact each potential subject, especially if contact information is no longer current.