

Informed consent statement: All parents participating in the study gave informed consent verbally. Identity of parents and child was accessible only to the researchers and all data were held in strict confidentiality. Informed written consent was obtained from all parents who agreed to be photographed with their children for the pictorial scale. All children photographed were typically developing children.

Hemamali Perera