

Fang-Fang,

I have attached the IRB Letter for our Pediatric Melanoma manuscript. Note that since a determination was made by the IRB that this is not considered human subjects research, an informed consent was not required.

If you have any questions or further requirements of me, please let me know.

Thank you,
John Psaltis