

This is to state that the study titled, "Intensive care unit complications and outcomes of adult patients with Hemophagocytic Lymphohistiocytosis- A retrospective study of 16 cases" was approved by Institutional Review Board of Baylor College of Medicine (H-41092). The study did not require written informed consent as it was based on retrospective chart review in electronic health record. Patients included already consented to treatment at the hospital.

08/2/2018

Sumit Kapoor, MD