

Submission 87755Informed Consent Statement

The University Health Network institutional research ethics board has exempted us from obtaining signed informed consent forms, due to the large sample size and retrospective nature of the study, such that obtaining signed consent forms would not be feasible. All data are anonymized, and the risk of personal health information being identified is low.