

Institutional review board statement

The study was approved by the Regional Ethical Review Board in Linköping, Sweden, and written informed consent was obtained from each patient.