

Footwear modification following hallux valgus surgery:
the all-or-none phenomenon.

You are being asked to take part in a study on foot and ankle surgery and outcomes after surgery with a return to function and heeled foot wear

What the study is about: The purpose of this study is to learn how patients return to function and heeled shoes after surgery.

What we will ask you to do: If you agree to be in this study, we will conduct an interview with you. The interview will include questions about your surgery and return to function and satisfaction and ability to wear heeled shoes.

Risks and benefits:

There are no risks or benefits. Your participation will help us advise future patients.

Your answers will be confidential. The records of this study will be kept private. In any sort of report we make public we will not include any information that will make it possible to identify you.

Taking part is voluntary: Taking part in this study is completely voluntary. You may skip any questions that you do not want to answer.

If you have questions:

Please ask any questions you have.

You will be given a copy of this form to keep for your records.

Statement of Consent: I have read the above information, and have received answers to any questions I asked. I consent to take part in the study.
