

Pisa May 22, 2020

To whom may be interested,

This is to certify that the ARPA Foundation approves the observational study on patients operated for adenocarcinoma of the ampullary region entitled: “Tissue Micro Array-Chip featuring computerized immunophenotypical characterization more accurately subtypes ampullary adenocarcinoma than routine histology”, with the aim of evaluating the expression of specific immunohistochemical markers in the tumor tissue.

The President

Prof. Franco Mosca

