Re: Funding Agency Approval Support Document

This is to certify that Dr Amos Lal, MBBS, FACP is currently enrolled in Master's in Clinical Research Program at Mayo Clinic Center for Clinical and Translational Science (CCATS). The educational program is supported by NIH Grant Number UL1 TR002377 from National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences (NCATS).

His primary area of research and thesis for the master's program is "Critical Care Coaching with an Electronic Health Record Digital Twin". The current manuscript accepted for the publication by the World Journal of Critical Care titled "Predictive modeling in neurocritical care using Artificial Intelligence" is covered under the above-mentioned support and the master's program.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Amos Lal", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Amos Lal, M.B.B.S, M.D, FACP
