COMMENTS TO AUTHORS:

it interesting but it should be restructured because there are lot of grammatical errors. Thanks

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS:

It' s an interesting case report. However, one issue that runs throughout the manuscript is the quality of the writing. For instance, the authors said that “occupied his right liver lobe...” in the manuscript, but I thought the patient is a 42-year old woman. Another issue is that the authors did not mention whether the case report was approved by the hospital as well as the patient.
