SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors report the discovery of a penile metastasis in a patient diagnosed with rectal cancer. The case is interesting and the manuscript can warrant publication in the journal following some revisions: 1. The template required by WJCC has not been used. Please revise the manuscript and references according to the journal's norms. 2. The paper requires a moderate polishing of the English language. 3. The discussions can be condensed a little bit, a lot of redundant information.
