SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Rare but very interesting case. However, it needs a major revision for the following reasons: 1) Introduction too long; 2) The Case Presentation must be shorter and must not be divided into subparagraphs; 3) authors should not include commercial names of companies; 4) Figures of good quality and acceptable references even if not very recent; 5) Since this is not a systematic review, the authors should not cite research through international databases otherwise they should enter inclusion and exclusion criteria that go beyond a case report; 6) Overall the setting of the sections of the manuscript must be revised on the basis of the indications of the journal
