SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This could not be considered as a review with the small numbers of references in the paper. Therefore, you may delete this "and literature review" from the title. There are some errors in Medical English such as this sentence "Previous studies have reported only a few sporadic cases of lipofibroadenomas". It should be carefully rechecked. The first paragraph of Discussion is a discussion, but repetition to that mentioned before. It should be deleted. The authors said that lipofibroadenoma is extremely rare case although they mentioned 3 cases. Please, clarify this point in discussion. The first reference is missing its website link. It should be added.
