SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This a good manuscript that examines the difficult issue of CDH during pregnancy. The aim is clearly stated from the title on. The methodology is correct. The results are well analyzed and displayed. The discussion is too long but correct and the references are good. I suggest to abridge a little bit the discussion, but otherwise I would recommend acceptance

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The disease is relatively rare. Although the number of medical records is not much, the author's thinking is clear and has clinical significance.
