SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear author, thank you for sharing your research. Indeed, the proposed topic is quite rare. In PubMed, there are only 143 results when conducting a free-text search without filters using "Esophageal adenoid cystic carcinoma." However, I believe that your article could be easily enhanced. You might consider incorporating a summary table citing previous cases from the literature, indicating, for example, the location of the disease, the type of treatment, and some patient characteristics (age, gender, etc.). My best regards
