Authors described about the management of perivaterian perforation during ERCP in this review. I think that this review is very interesting for endoscopists and gastroenterologists and worth publishing.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

congratulations for well designed review on important topic. post-ERCP perforation and the use of covered SEMS. I have few comments. 1- the method for early detection of perforation is deficient. please more clarification. 2- some abbreviations are not explained eg. ERBD ... Please explain.
