SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors described three cases of diffuse alveolar hemorrhage due to pulmonary capillaritis. Pulmonary capillaritis was rare, and I considered that this study is interesting for the readers of World Journal of Clinical Cases. Some problems were included in this manuscript. Did "mo" mean "months"? Since it is plural, write "mos". Or, you should revise as "months". (Line 83, 87, 93, and 105) In line 97, anti-glomerular basement membrane "antibody", please verify. In line 162, "C3" was an abbreviation. Please verify. In line 174, "seems" was not correct. Please verify.
