SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Thank you for the invitation to review the manuscript by Si Hyun Kim and colleagues. It is an interesting case report, comprehensively describing the robot-assisted laparoscopic pyeloureterostomy. The introduction is well-written; the case report is easy to follow with enough details regarding the procedure. The discussion is well balanced. Graphic material is adequately complementing the text. Please use only the generic names of the drugs (Figure 7, title). The manuscript should be revised and adjusted according to the requirements of the Journal. I would recommend its publication.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Although it is written in a very nice way, it does not add any thing to the literature. The fact already known is that UPJO may present at times with trauma. This has been reiterated in the article
