SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The author should describe better about "laparoscopy" in this manuscript: does it play a role in diagnostic measurement, or is it an etiology (as had been reported done for this patient) The author should describe the AMA-M2 examination: is it on purpose, or is it a coincidence finding?

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Thank you for the very rare case report. The characteristic image findings of this case will be helpful to the reader. Please consider the following: Why is AMA-M2 help a preoperative diagnosis of EPS? Are there a similar case report? In general, surgery is recommended only in patients who have failed conservative medical therapy. please explain the surgical indication in this patient.
