SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I see no problems with the paper. The writing is sound. The subject is of interest to readers, the methodology is sound, as is the discussion. The paper examines right-heart contrast echocardiography as a diagnostic tool for various cardiovascular disorders. the procedure was able to diagnose a patient, leading to appropriate treatment. Therefore, the hypothesis that the method would be useful was confirmed and can be utilized in future cases and is something other medical staff can use. I recommend acceptance.
